

Eleison Comments" by Mgr. Williamson - Issue CCCIV - 304 (English)

---

[1]

Number CCCIV (304)

11 May 2013

Contact Us:

Please write to the applicable email address from among the following with your questions, comments, or concerns:

letters@dinoscopus.org<sup>[2]</sup>

- for comments to the author about a particular issue of Eleison Comments.

info@dinoscopus.org<sup>[3]</sup>

- for general questions or comments.

admin@dinoscopus.org<sup>[4]</sup>

- to resolve technical concerns or problems.

editorial@dinoscopus.org<sup>[5]</sup>

- for back issues of Eleison Comments.

---

MORE ENCOURAGEMENT

The news from a one-week visit to Germany, France and Switzerland is encouraging. Certain leaders might do well to remember the famous words of Abraham Lincoln: "You can fool some of the people all the time, all the people some of the time, but not all the people all the time." Fewer people all the time are being fooled by what is happening within the Newsociety of St Pius X.

The journey began in Germany where some people feared I might run into difficulties, but for four days I was not troubled in any way. A good young layman picked me up at Frankfurt's huge railway station and drove me north to Brilon Wald to meet the half dozen Carmelite Sisters who have become famous throughout the world of Catholic Tradition for having separated themselves, for all the right reasons, from the SSPX in its present state. They are clear in mind, resolute and cheerful. As Mother Superior told me, their greatest sorrow is that for over 20 years no novice has persevered with them. The Carmelite Sisters are not being expelled from their present convent, as has been feared, but they are hoping to move south for greater local support. May God be with them. Their prayers are precious to all of us.

Then I was driven back south of Frankfurt to address a private meeting of some two dozen adults, mostly men, in a countryside setting. They listened attentively in the afternoon to an in-depth analysis of the background crisis of the New World Order and the Newchurch, and on the following morning to a presentation of the foreground problems in the Newsociety. There were plenty of good questions and a good deal of hearty singing from the compatriots of Beethoven. The springtime birds in the German trees were given a good run for their money !

Further south, in Munich, I met with an old friend and the two lawyers who will be going to bat for me at my fifth trial for denying the “Holocaust”, due to take place in Regensburg in September. They are well aware that national politics make a just verdict at the regional level virtually impossible, but they will do their best. Precisely because the Six Million serve as a substitute Redeemer in millions of minds, I had no scruple in remunerating the lawyers from the St Marcel Initiative, but its funds are being depleted. Thank you for all and any help.

Then to the Black Forest in southwest Germany, where there is another community of half a dozen Sisters, likewise cheerful and resolved not to follow the present misdirection of the SSPX. Founded in 1988, they have recently finished building and decorating a beautiful chapel with some two dozen choir-stalls “as a sign of hope”, their chaplain told me. Girls, if you think you may have a vocation, here are two firmly anti-modern convents in Germany that you can try.

Lastly, one night in Switzerland, close but unknown to Écône, where they may have learned only afterwards that I passed by to meet a group of good layfolk. And one night in Paris where I learned to my delight that many SSPX priests in France have lost all trust in the present management of the SSPX. Let us be patient. Almighty God is fooled by none of us.

My next engagement is in London on May 19, when I should be addressing British Friends of Palestine on Hamlet. Why? In that play Shakespeare cries out with pain at the loss of England’s soul. Were England still Catholic, not only Palestine but the whole world would be better off.

Kyrie eleison.

© 2011-2013 Richard N. Williamson. All Rights Reserved.

A non-exclusive license to print out, forward by email, and/or post this article to the Internet is granted to users who wish to do so provided that no changes are made to the content so reproduced or distributed, to include the retention of this notice with any and all reproductions of content as authorized hereby. Aside from this limited, non-exclusive license, no portion of this article may be reproduced in any other form or by any other electronic or mechanical means without permission in writing from the publisher, except by a reviewer who may quote brief passages in a review, or except in cases where rights to content reproduced herein are retained by its original author(s) or other rights holder(s), and further reproduction is subject to permission otherwise granted thereby.

Permissions inquiries should be directed to editorial@dinoscopus.org<sup>[7]</sup>.

www.dinoscopus.org<sup>[8]</sup>

.....
This email should only be sent to those who have asked to receive it. It is intended that this email be sent only to those who have asked to receive it, and who have completed a formal and completely voluntary subscription process. In the event you have received this message unwillingly, and/or you wish to unsubscribe from the mailing list, return to <http://www.dinoscopus.org/english/eleisonenglish.html><sup>[9]</sup> click the “unsubscribe” button after your email has been entered in the appropriate box. Otherwise, contact

Donate

While Eleison Comments is provided free of charge, there are administrative and technical costs associated with making it available to subscribers worldwide and with operating this site. Contributions to offset these costs are appreciated, and may be made via the button below or by contacting:

donate@dinoscopus.org<sup>[6]</sup>

admin@dinoscopus.org<sup>[10]</sup> with your concerns.

1. <http://www.dinoscopus.org/index.html>
2. <mailto:letters@dinoscopus.org>
3. <mailto:info@dinoscopus.org>
4. <mailto:admin@dinoscopus.org>
5. <mailto:editorial@dinoscopus.org>
6. <mailto:donate@dinoscopus.org>
7. <mailto:editorial@dinoscopus.org>
8. <http://www.dinoscopus.org/>
9. <http://www.dinoscopus.org/english/eleisonenglish.html>
0. <mailto:admin@dinoscopus.org>